

The Vancouver Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditors Progress Through Sharing Training Session

Thursday, January 28, 2010
(11:30 AM to 2:00 PM)

Internal Audit in an Economic Downturn – What has Changed?

Presenters: Shane Troyer, CGA, CFE, CIA, CISSP
(1 CPD hours)

Content:

The topics to be covered include:

- How people and organizations change
- The emergence of fraud as an operational risk consideration
- Internal Audit's role in fraud risk management

About the Presenters:

Shane Troyer

As a Partner, Shane leads the Forensic and Internal Audit Service practice areas at Breakwater Accounting Advisors LLP (“Breakwater”); bringing fifteen years combined experience in forensic accounting and investigation, operational internal audit, and external audit services.

Shane has local, national, and international experience working with organizations in both the public and private sectors, ranging from small owner managed businesses to large multi-billion dollar corporate and government entities. Shane's key areas of focus include the development, implementation, and delivery of:

- strategic operational internal audit programs;
- anti-fraud programs and controls; and
- forensic accounting and investigation.

Shane is a Certified General Accountant, Certified Fraud Examiner, Certified Internal Auditor, and a Certified Information System Security Professional. Shane currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Vancouver Chapter of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners.

Location: Sutton Place Hotel, 845 Burrard Street, Vancouver. The hotel is a five-minute walk from the Burrard Street Skytrain station.

Doors open at 11:30 AM for registration. Event will begin at 12:00 noon and end by 2:00 PM. Fee includes three-course lunch. (Please advise if you have dietary restrictions or allergies)

Cost: $45 for IIA members, and $50 for non-members. Please bring a cheque payable to The IIA - Vancouver Chapter to the event.

Seating is limited so reserve your space today.

Please note: we understand that circumstances change. Alternates may attend if the registered participant is not available on the event date. However, as the hotel and presenter requires a firm commitment from us, if we do not receive a cancellation notice by January 25, 2010, we will have to bill the registered participant for the fee.

For further information or to register please contact Norma Lewis by email at iiavancouver@gmail.com.
